Sophie Morrison provides counsel for corporate clients of all sizes across numerous industries, bringing a practical and business-minded approach to her practice that emphasizes effective communication and foreseeing a client's needs.

Practical counsel from a business perspective with emphasis on relationships

During law school, Sophie served as a legal extern for a nonprofit organization dedicated to preventing animal cruelty. She also served as the Treasurer of the Sports Law Society, as an APEX Advisor to first-year students, and was a member of the Women's Leadership Coalition.

Sophie spent her final year of law school in the Donald Pritzker Entrepreneurship Law Center, where she helped entrepreneurs and nonprofit clients manage their legal needs.
