EVENT

Spotting Potential Class Action Risk

Presented by Katten and the Association of Corporate Counsel

February 13, 2020

Katten and the Association of Corporate Counsel will present "Spotting Potential Class Action Risk" at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, February 13. Litigation partner Andrew Demko, and Consumer Finance Litigation partners Gregory Korman and Stuart Richter, will participate as speakers. The program will discuss class actions, including what they are, how to spot potential class action risk in your organization, real-life examples of class claims on everyday products and services, and the pros and cons of implementing arbitration provisions as an effective class action shield.
