

Louise Carroll Selected as Award Recipient at Bisnow's New York Women Leading Real Estate Event

November 21, 2023

Real Estate partner Louise Carroll, Affordable Housing and Community Development Co-chair, was selected as an award recipient for Bisnow's New York Women Leading Real Estate Event. On December 12 in New York, Bisnow will celebrate stellar innovators, dealmakers and thought leaders across various sectors of the commercial real estate industry, including legal, brokerage, operations and asset management, and investment and financing.

Along with Louise, this year's honorees include executives from companies including Hines, Cushman & Wakefield, Brookfield and others. All award recipients were nominated and then selected by Bisnow's steering committee for their leadership qualities and "drive to creatively do business over the last year during uncertain economic times."
