Emma Williams assists clients operating in a range of industries, including social media, financial services, luxury goods and hospitality. She frequently explores issues relating to employment, compliance, regulation, sales and acquisitions, data privacy and litigation.

Tailoring solutions to suit the culture of each client

Emma is part of a global practice that helps clients to both manage the day-to-day and look to the future. She handles a full range of employment law and compliance issues, from handbooks and team moves to tribunal litigation. She also deals with developing regulatory schemes in the technology sector. Working in fast-moving practice areas, Emma finds practical solutions that complement the culture and brand of each client.
