

Jamie N. Noonan

Associate

Securities Litigation

Chicago Office | +1.312.902.5492

jamie.noonan@katten.com

Jamie Noonan concentrates her practice on litigation and enforcement matters with a focus on federal securities laws and the financial services industry.

Diligence in every step of the litigation process

Jamie draws on her past experience to help clients navigate complex legal issues. Prior to joining Katten, Jamie served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Raymond W. Mitchell in the Chancery Division of the Circuit Court of Cook County and completed a Public Interest Law Initiative Fellowship at Legal Aid Chicago. Jamie also worked as a judicial extern to the Honorable Charles P. Kocoras of the US District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

While attending law school, Jamie was an executive articles editor of the Chicago-Kent Law Review, a vice president of the Moot Court Honor Society, and a teaching assistant for Civil Procedure and Legal Writing.

Publications

- Financial Markets and Funds Quick Take | Issue 6 (September 15, 2022)
- FINRA Proposes Trade Reporting Requirements for OTC Options Transactions (September 7, 2022)
- SEC Chairman Announces Plans for Further Regulation of Rule 10b5-1 Plans (June 21, 2021)

Practices

- Financial Markets Litigation and Enforcement
- Litigation
- Securities Enforcement Defense
- Securities Litigation

Education

- JD, Chicago-Kent College of Law, Illinois Institute of Technology, magna cum laude, Order of the Coif
- BA, Creighton University, cum laude

Bar Admissions

- Illinois