

Alexandra Bright

Associate

Litigation

Chicago Office | +1.312.902.5248

alexandra.bright@katten.com

Alexandra Bright focuses her practice on complex litigation matters with a particular focus on white collar defense, internal investigations, financial markets litigation and regulatory defense.

Attentive to clients' unique concerns and prepared to provide tailored insight and advocacy

During law school, Alexandra served as a student attorney for the University of Chicago Mandel Legal Aid Clinic's Civil Rights and Police Accountability Project. She was also a member of the University of Chicago Law Review, the events coordinator for the University of Chicago chapter of the American Constitution Society, and a research assistant to Professor Emily Buss. Prior to law school, Alexandra worked at a nonprofit advocating for victims of domestic violence. While in law school, she interned at the ACLU of Illinois and a boutique law firm in Chicago.

Publications

- Chicago United States Attorney's Office Launches Pilot Program to Encourage Self-Disclosure (September 26, 2024)

Practices

- Commercial Litigation
- Financial Markets Litigation and Enforcement
- Insurance and Health Care Fraud Litigation
- Litigation
- White Collar and Internal Investigations

Education

- JD, The University of Chicago Law School, cum laude
- MSt, University of Oxford, with distinction
- BA, New York University, summa cum laude, valedictorian of the College of Arts and Science

Bar Admissions

- Illinois