Joanna Hwang provides regulatory, compliance and transactional counsel to a broad range of health care clients, including hospitals and health systems, physician practices and other provider organizations, pharmaceutical companies, insurers and private equity firms investing in the health care and life sciences industries.

Dedication to detail and innovative solutions

Joanna regularly advises strategic investors and private equity firms on regulatory considerations for health care and life sciences transactions, including investments in physician practices, nurse staff agencies, contract research organizations, pharmacies and home health providers. Joanna also assists clients in navigating the complex health care regulatory landscape by providing guidance on various aspects of regulatory compliance, including reimbursement under federal health care programs, corporate practice of medicine, HIPAA, and fraud and abuse laws, such as the Stark Law, the Anti-Kickback Statute and the False Claims Act.

Joanna maintains a robust pro bono practice and is also committed to supporting the legal community through mentorship of other young professionals.
