Incorporating his prior experience in capital markets and securitized products at a major investment bank, Chris Romaka advises his clients with a deep understanding of both their legal and business objectives. Chris strives to provide services tailored to his clients' needs and understands the importance of innovative solutions in a rapidly evolving financial services industry.

Creative solutions tailored to clients' needs

Prior to joining Katten, Chris spent more than five years working in the securitized products group at a major investment bank, focusing on loan origination and securitization. His fundamental understanding of capital markets and the financial services industry allows him to add value by approaching legal problems with firsthand knowledge of how his clients operate. Chris is detail-oriented and enjoys coming up with creative solutions for complex client issues.
