John Lepore concentrates his practice in litigation matters. John is a solution-driven attorney who helps his clients – including some of the nation's largest insurance companies – develop investigation, claims handling, and litigation strategies to detect, prevent, and deter fraud.

Complex litigation and investigations focused on addressing insurance fraud

In addition to advising clients on strategies designed to mitigate exposure, John has successfully litigated RICO, fraud, and whistleblower actions involving health care services in federal and state courts across the country.
