John Huang helps clients structure, negotiate and close complex debt financing transactions and related strategic investor programs. He represents senior secured and mezzanine lenders, lead arrangers and administrative agents, private equity sponsors, and corporate borrowers in connection with secured and unsecured cash flow and asset-based credit facilities across a broad range of industries, including health care, fintech and other specialty finance.

An experienced hand in debt financing

John's practice spans a wide variety of deal sizes and types, from single lender financings of early-stage, emerging growth companies to large market, broadly syndicated credit facilities, and includes a focus on leveraged buyouts and other acquisition and recapitalization financings. John also represents lead arrangers and asset managers in connection with strategic investor initiatives, including loan participation and loan assignment programs with separately managed accounts and other third-party investors.
