Rebecca Lomazow is an associate in the Private Wealth department.

Helping clients plan a secure future

Rebecca supports the team's work with high-net-worth individuals and families on estate and tax planning for individuals and families. She also assists with the administration of estates and trusts.

As an associate, she's always available to listen to client concerns, answer questions and help advise clients as their needs grow and change.

Rebecca drafts documents for clients' varied estate planning needs, including wills and a range of different trusts. She advises fiduciaries responsible for administering estates and trusts and researches precedents to advocate for clients involved in estate litigation.
