

Gaye M. Bartulis*

Director of Human Resources

Chicago Office

+1.312.577.8234

gaye.bartulis@katten.com

Education

BA, Drury University

Gaye Bartulis is Katten's Director of Human Resources. She oversees employee benefits, compensation, Human Resources systems, payroll, employee relations and recruiting for business professionals. Gaye has played an instrumental role in the firm being named as one of Working Mother magazine's "100 Best Companies" and Working Mother and Flex-Time Lawyers' "50 Best Law Firms for Women" over the past 10 years.

Delivering best practices and ensuring consistent standards across the firm.

Before joining Katten, Gaye spent nearly 20 years at Arthur Andersen LLP where she was a principal, responsible for employment matters for 28,000 employees across North America. During her tenure, she helped Andersen achieve recognition on Fortune's "100 Best Companies to Work" list. She was also a key player in the wind-down of the human resources operations for Andersen across the United States.

Gaye is a former board member of the YWCA of Dallas.

* Not a practicing attorney