Nicola Bunick supports clients facing litigation and enforcement matters, with particular focus on the financial services industry, regulatory and internal investigations, and other commercial disputes. She is able to draw on her prior experience serving as senior counsel to US Senator Joe Donnelly to understand the needs of clients facing a range of complex matters and deftly navigate those challenges.

Offering insight with your specific business objectives in mind.

Prior to her time working on Capitol Hill, Nicola was an associate at an international law firm located in Washington, DC, where she gained insight into antitrust matters, providing support for government investigations, reviewing mergers and offering related counseling.
