Sutapa Adhikari focuses her practice on commercial finance transactions. She represents agents, lenders, private equity sponsors and borrowers in a variety of leveraged financings.

Putting the client first through excellent communication, efficiency and results

Prior to joining Katten, Sutapa was a finance associate at another global law firm. She also has experience representing both issuer and bank clients in structured finance and securitization transactions. While in law school, she interned at a large medical device company as well as the US Securities and Exchange Commission.
