Jiabin Hong focuses her practice on private equity and venture capital investment, mergers and acquisitions, and other cross-border transactions. She has experience in a wide variety of industries, including TMT, e-commerce, education, medical and health care, biotechnology and industrial manufacturing.

Legal knowledge and business sense

Jiabin has represented many outstanding companies in their equity financings both within China and abroad. In those transactions, she counseled her clients on everything from designing the transaction structure and negotiating transaction documents with counterparties, to assisting with the execution and closing. Her professional skills and dedication ensure that the whole transaction is in compliance with applicable Chinese laws and regulations.

Jiabin's key role in such complex transactions has enriched her business sense and communication skills. With a strong foundation in legal knowledge, a keen business sense and excellent communication skills, Jiabin is highly appreciated by her clients.

Jiabin is fluent in both English and Chinese. She passed the Chinese Legal Professional Qualification Examination in 2012 and has been licensed and was admitted to practice law in the state of New York since 2016. Prior to joining Katten, she worked in a leading People's Republic of China law firm as an associate.
