Elizabeth McNichol helps her clients execute a variety of complex corporate securities transactions, including initial and follow-on public offerings, De-SPAC transactions and placements of equity and debt securities. She also helps her clients navigate securities law compliance-, disclosure- and corporate governance-related matters.

Meticulous and strategic corporate securities and compliance counsel

Elizabeth is a highly experienced attorney known for her ability to handle complex transactions with ease. She has a comprehensive understanding of securities laws and regulations, which she uses to guide her clients through intricate legal and corporate governance matters. Taking a client-centric approach, she is committed to achieving her clients' objectives.

Elizabeth's diverse experience, from public offerings to capital-raising transactions, showcases her versatility and dedication to her clients. Her experience spans a range of industries, including dining and entertainment firms, bitcoin mining companies, microturbine companies and metallurgical coal mining companies. She also is skilled at working with investment firms in complex transactions and ensuring her clients are compliant with securities laws and Nasdaq or New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) rules.
