Tegan Miller-McCormack helps both UK and international clients in matters of intellectual property, general commercial and data protection law. She has previous experience working for a globally renowned luxury fashion brand and is able to channel the knowledge and experience gained into delivering commercially focused counsel for her clients.

A wide range of intellectual property experience

Tegan's clients work in the fashion and luxury brands, social media, retail, hospitality, financial services and telecoms industries. She also contributes to the firm's fashion editorial, the Katten Kattwalk, and is a Lexology author. Before being admitted to the bar, Tegan gained legal and business experience as a legal intern for a global luxury fashion company, a trademark administrator and later as a paralegal.
