

Nicholas A. Crowe

Associate

Chicago Office

+1.312.902.5397

nicholas.crowe@katten.com

Practices

FOCUS: Litigation

Commercial Litigation

Financial Markets Litigation and Enforcement

Intellectual Property

Education

JD, University of Michigan

BS, University of Illinois at Chicago, summa cum laude

Bar Admissions

Illinois

Nicholas represents a broad array of clients in the financial services and regulatory enforcement sectors. His experience includes defending broker-dealers, trading firms and investment advisors in proceedings brought by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as well as providing counsel to digital asset trading platforms and blockchain technology companies. Nicholas is also passionate about intellectual property law and occasionally assists with IP-related due diligence matters.

Providing certainty and assurances to clients in an ever-evolving world

During both college and law school, Nicholas was an active member of his schools' mock trial teams and was recognized with several awards for his trial advocacy skills.

Publications

- COVID-Related Shutdowns Don't Constitute "Direct Physical Loss" Under Commercial Property Policies (January 2022)