Amelia represents motion picture studios, production companies, television networks and new media companies. Before attending law school, Amelia had a significant career working in entertainment. That prior experience gives her valuable insight into the risks and challenges posed to media companies today.

Research, risk-assessment, responsiveness

Amelia has extensive prior experience working in the entertainment industry. Her passion for the art of film and television, combined with strong research and writing skills, makes her an ideal guide to resolution of copyright and trademark infringement actions.
