Paige Krause represents owners, developers, investors and lenders in a wide range of commercial real estate transactions, including, but not limited to, acquisitions and dispositions of commercial properties, office and retail leasing, financing and related corporate matters.

Focused on efficiency and cost-effectiveness

After previously working in-house for a global real estate company, Paige learned the importance of focusing on clients' business objectives when considering legal solutions. She seeks out the most efficient and cost-effective ways to achieve clients' goals, all while keeping their best interests in mind.
