Eric Emerson is devoted to helping clients navigate the intricacies associated with mergers and acquisitions. Having represented some of the world's largest private equity firms, Eric also frequently works with middle-market firms, their portfolio companies and small business owners preparing to sell their companies.

Creating value from diverse deal experiences

Eric has a wide range of experience in various industries, including buy-side and sell-side deals, asset deals, stock deals, mergers and recapitalizations. He has successfully spearheaded transactions within the United States and navigated cross-border transactions with entities in Central and South America, Europe, Asia and Australia.

Eric has extensive experience in dealing with various types of deals, which has helped him hone his problem-solving skills. This has equipped him with the necessary tools to tackle complex challenges faced by his clients. Eric takes particular pride in his ability to approach situations from a client's perspective. He evaluates potential solutions from a legal standpoint while also taking into consideration the business implications.
