Lauren Eiten represents clients in a range of litigation issues with a focus on intellectual property matters. Lauren has a strong desire to exceed expectations and deliver the effort necessary to achieve results.

Building solid client relationships through communication

Prior to becoming an attorney, Lauren served in state and federal government working both in policy and public outreach. This experience further developed Lauren's communication skills and ingrained in her the importance of listening and identifying issues. She also served as an associate at Uncharted LLC where she helped edit and publicize a bestselling Canadian memoir.

During her three years at the Illinois College of Law, Lauren served as the Student Bar Association President, internet & symposium editor of the Illinois Law Review, and competed in the 2020–21 ABA National Negotiation Competition finishing as the 9th place team. She was in the inaugural class of the Medical Legal Partnership Clinic where she helped clients dispute Social Security Disability Insurance denials. Lauren has a strong commitment to pro bono work and completed the Illinois College of Law Leadership Project.
