Practices

FOCUS: Structured Finance and Securitization

Associate Manny Mevs concentrates his practice on structured finance and asset-backed securitizations.

Education

JD, Harvard Law School
BA, Florida International University

Two sides, one goal: an efficient closing

In Manny's practice, he has represented different sides of both public and private transactions, depending on the project. Thus, his clients may be an issuer or an underwriter, a lender or a borrower. He also has experience with prime and sub-prime automobile loans and leases. But whichever side of the deal he is on, his goal is always to help his client get a positive outcome.

Bar Admissions

New York
Texas

In addition, Manny has helped clients with dealer floorplan receivable securitizations and warehouses, secured warehouse lending facilities as well as revolving credit facilities and structured term loans.
