For high-net-worth individuals with interests on both coasts and around the globe, Abby Feinman acts as a trusted counsel for all their estate, trust and tax-planning needs. She puts advanced creative strategies to use in advising clients on wealth transfer, administering trusts and estates after death and resolving disputes over trusts and estates. She has extensive experience with philanthropic and charitable giving.

Understanding the needs of high-net-worth individuals

Abby's clients include family offices, owners of closely held businesses, private equity fund managers, real estate entrepreneurs, art collectors, entertainment executives and corporate fiduciaries. She has extensive experience with specific issues, such as multi-generational transfers, tax-efficient wealth transfers and cross-border concerns, that arise in helping these clients meet their business and personal goals.

Abby also advises clients on charitable giving and the formation of private foundations.
