

Omnibus Spending Bill Funds CSB Through September 30, 2018

Prepared for the Katten Safety Advisory Group

March 26, 2018

On Friday, March 23, 2018, President Trump signed the Consolidated Appropriations Act (“omnibus spending bill”), funding the government for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2018. Contrary to the administration's budget for the 2018 and 2019 fiscal years, the omnibus spending bill does not eliminate the U.S. Chemical Safety Board (“CSB”), and instead specifies an appropriation of $11,000,000 for the agency.

Full access to Katten Safety Advisory Group alerts is restricted to members. For more information on KSAG, please click here. If you are interested in membership in KSAG, please email KSAG@katten.com