A New, Focused Regulatory Agenda for the SEC

Published in Law360

December 11, 2018

This article analyzes US Securities and Exchange Commission Chairman Jay Clayton's regulatory agenda for the coming year. Clayton published a speech on December 6, which seeks to keep the SEC's regulatory agenda short and keenly focused. Agenda topics for the coming year include:

- Regulation Best Interest;
- proxy process reform;
- greater scrutiny for fixed income markets;
- clarification for capital formation regulations;
- continued quarterly reporting; and
- monitoring risks associated with Brexit, Libor and cybersecurity.
