Structured Finance Year in Review and the Outlook for 2021 | Key Takeaways

December 23, 2020

On December 8 and 10, Katten's Structured Finance and Securitization Department presented the “Year in Review and Outlook for 2021” webinar series. Topics covered by Katten attorneys and guest speakers include the impact of the coronavirus COVID-19 pandemic on the structured finance industry, the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) LIBOR transition, the effects of the UK regulatory and tax regime on securitizations and the effects of Brexit on the securitization market, challenges to fintech partnership models in consumer lending, and what effects the incoming presidential administration could have on financial markets.

Read the “Structured Finance Year in Review and the Outlook for 2021 | Key Takeaways” report in its entirety.
