How to Minimise Risk Under the Bribery Act 2010

Published by Thomson Reuters Regulatory Intelligence

September 14, 2022

Article reviews what financial services organizations can do to continue to minimize risk of foreign or domestic bribery as part of guidance set forth in the UK Bribery Act 2010. Understanding the details of the Bribery Act, keeping anti-bribery policies up-to-date and ensuring the entire organization understands the procedures for implementing those policies are ways to remain in compliance, as well as be in a position to respond quickly should a breach occur.
