

A New Delaware? Texas Passes Legislation for Specialized Business Courts

Published by The Texas Lawbook

June 9, 2023

On May 25, the Texas Legislature passed House Bill 19, which will codify a business court system in Texas. Similar to the commercial court systems that exist in Delaware and New York, Texas's business court system will provide a dedicated court system of commercially focused judges to move high-dollar business disputes efficiently through the judicial system. This article summarizes key aspects of the legislation.
