

Shifting Sands

Published in Corporate Secretary

November 2008

The May 2007 amendment to Delaware law that allows the SEC to request legal interpretations from the Delaware Supreme Court will change how the SEC administers the shareholder proposal process. This article discusses the evolution of Securities Exchange Act Rule 14a-8 and how the rule will be transformed by the Delaware decision.