

The Term Asset-Backed Securities Loan Facility

Published in Total Securitization

December 15, 2008

The Federal Reserve Board on Tuesday, November 25, announced the creation of the Term Asset-Backed Securities Loan Facility (TALF), a credit facility intended to assist the credit markets in accommodating the credit needs of consumers and small businesses by facilitating the issuance of asset-backed securities (ABS). This article describes the basic terms and operational details of the facility.

Attorney advertising. Published as a source of information only. The material contained herein is not to be construed as legal advice or opinion.

©2026 Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP.

All rights reserved. Katten refers to Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP and the affiliated partnership as explained at katten.com/disclaimer.