

And The Band Played On: Disputes Over Musical Group Names Were a Familiar Tune in 2013

September 9, 2013

David Halberstadter, a partner in the Entertainment and Media Litigation practice, has authored an article on the most recent battles between musical groups and their former members over the right to use the bands' names. The article discusses various lawsuits that were active in 2013 and provides recommendations for how musical groups can avoid such disputes.
