

Have You Properly Perfected Your International Interest Against a Helicopter Engine?

Published by International Law Office

December 11, 2013

This article discusses the official commentary to the Cape Town Convention which calls into question the validity of an international interest filed against a helicopter engine that is attached to a helicopter. The article also addresses industry recommendations that a “prospective international interest” be filed against helicopter engines and urges amendments to the convention.

Attorney advertising. Published as a source of information only. The material contained herein is not to be construed as legal advice or opinion.

©2026 Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP.

All rights reserved. Katten refers to Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP and the affiliated partnership as explained at katten.com/disclaimer.