

Knowing When (or Whether) to Say When—A Survey of Public Access and Free Speech Rights at U.S. Shopping Centers

Published in Shopping Center Legal Update

Summer 2014

This article examines the competing interests of shopping center owners seeking to control access to their private property and of persons seeking to exercise free speech rights on the same private property.

This article first appeared in the Summer 2014 issue of Shopping Center Legal Update, published by the International Council of Shopping Centers, Inc., www.icsc.org.
