

Positive Developments for Affordable Housing in California

Published in Law360

February 8, 2016

This Law360 article describes recent developments in California to promote affordable housing at the state and municipal levels, including passage of the California Community Revitalization and Investment Authority Law; the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors unanimous vote to gradually set aside up to $100 million a year in a dedicated Affordable Housing Program budget; and Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti's proposal to subsidize affordable housing with new developer fees.
