

TTAB Clarifies Allegation Time Period for Dilution Claims

Published in Managing Intellectual Property

June 2016

This article discusses the precedential decision issued by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (TTAB) in Omega SA v Alpha Phi Omega. The TTAB provided clarification concerning at what point in time a plaintiff must establish fame of its mark in order to support a claim of dilution by blurring in a TTAB proceeding. The result was that, for purposes of defending against a claim of dilution, an Applicant can rely on its historical use of the applied-for mark in connection with goods or services other than those identified in the Application.
