Alison Krieser brings a blend of legal knowledge, interpersonal skills, and business acumen to her practice, focusing on private equity and corporate transactional matters. Known for her responsiveness and ability to anticipate client needs and risks, Alison provides strategic counsel as she guides clients on optimal paths toward success.

Emphasizes people and relationships to help maximize gain

Alison understands that closing the deal is not her only goal. She recognizes that her clients' deals often involve building and maintaining relationships and avoiding impasses. Acknowledging the value of people and relationships in many transactions, she ensures a smooth transition that respects the interests of all parties involved.

Alison regularly works with private equity firms, investment funds, and companies in diverse industries such as health care, veterinary services, construction and technology. She assists them with mergers and acquisitions, growth equity, contract negotiations, company formation and governance. Clients appreciate the calm and steady approach Alison employs when guiding transactions to completion, as well as her commitment to their overall success.

Alison Krieser is licensed in Texas, Wisconsin, and Nevada. Her application for the Illinois Bar is pending.*
