Lisa Prather focuses her practice on healthcare regulatory and compliance matters, with a special focus in health data privacy. She also handles mergers and acquisitions and other healthcare industry-related special projects.

Advising clients on how to stay ahead of complicated compliance regulations

Lisa's clients are from diverse sectors of the health industry. These include hospital systems, physician groups, pharmacies and other professionals. Lisa assists her clients in meeting their business goals while navigating the increasingly complex healthcare regulatory environment. Her unique background of working at a Fortune 500 company, a nationwide hospital system and law firms, combined with her experience in federal and state healthcare law compliance, enables Lisa to offer her clients an exceptional level of assistance and support. This includes advice on everything from HIPAA and fraud and abuse matters, to telehealth guidance, corporate practice of medicine doctrines, and licensing board rules and regulations for healthcare providers.

Lisa previously served as deputy general counsel to a nationwide system of hospitals and physician group practices, where she oversaw operational, regulatory and compliance, and transactional matters. Lisa has extensive experience with HIPAA and the ever-evolving landscape of state laws regarding health data privacy, and she frequently assists clients in navigating compliance with these laws.
