

Heike Simone Radeke

Registered Patent Agent

Intellectual Property

Charlotte Office | +1.704.344.3180

heike.radeke@katten.com

Heike Simone Radeke is an experienced patent agent in the Intellectual Property practice in Katten's Charlotte office. With more than 15 years working in the pharmaceutical industry as a medical chemist and with a technical background in medicinal chemistry, small molecule drug design, synthetic organic chemistry and drug development, Heike has the experience and knowledge to solve clients' patent-related matters in the life science space.

Inventor and writer in scientific journals

Before joining Katten, Heike spent several years working as a technology specialist at Mintz Levin and as a patent agent at Myers Bigel and Womble Bond Dickinson. She has been published numerous times in scientific journals and is a named co-inventor on several pharmaceutical patents and patent applications.

News

- Generics' 2nd Challenge To Acne Drug IP Succeeds At PTAB (June 2, 2020)
- MDL Won't Stop PTAB From Reviewing Merck Diabetes Patent (May 13, 2020)

Practices

- Hatch-Waxman Litigation
- Intellectual Property
- Patent Litigation and Patents

Industries

- Pharmaceutical and Life Sciences

Education

- PhD, Boston College, Organic Chemistry
- BS, The State University of New York at Binghamton, Chemistry