

Sarah M. Scruton

Counsel

Litigation

Chicago Office | +1.312.902.5472

sarah.scruton@katten.com

Sarah Scruton has a wide-ranging litigation practice, involving issues such as contracts, fraud and insurance matters. She assists clients with complex litigation in federal and state courts across the country.

Dedication to detail and innovation

Sarah's broad practice gives her a wide range of experience to draw upon when brainstorming solutions for clients. Applying her dedication to detail and creativity, Sarah is able to craft individually tailored strategies for all of her clients' litigation issues.

Sarah also maintains an active pro bono practice. She assists with asylum cases in partnership with the National Immigrant Justice Center.

Prior to joining Katten, Sarah worked as a paralegal at a complex civil litigation boutique. During law school, Sarah served as executive technical editor for the Harvard Journal of Law & Gender. She also worked as the Food Justice team leader for the Mississippi Delta Project at Harvard Law School.

Recognitions

Recognized or listed in the following:

- Super Lawyers Rising Stars
  - Illinois, 2025–2027

News

- Katten Attorneys Named to 2026 Illinois Super Lawyers, Rising Stars Lists (January 21, 2026)
- Katten Attorneys Selected for 2025 Illinois Super Lawyers, Rising Stars Lists (January 31, 2025)

Practices

- Insurance and Healthcare Fraud Litigation
- Litigation

Education

- JD, Harvard Law School
- BA, Yale University

Bar Admissions

- Illinois