With nearly a decade of experience, Julia Brook takes a business-forward approach to the practice of law. Julia advises clients on numerous aspects of corporate and business law, including general corporate counseling, mergers and acquisitions, dispositions, and structuring business ownership and investments. Her primary focus is on middle-market, public and private company transactions, including private equity and venture capital financings, international financings and transactions, strategic acquisitions, debt and equity offerings, and joint ventures.

Practical, business-minded approach to getting transactions closed and achieving client objectives

Julia is a user-friendly attorney with an emphasis on the client experience and consistent communication. Spanning a wide array of corporate transactional matters, Julia has a passion for staying on the cutting edge of market changes and prides herself in offering creative solutions to fulfill client objectives and meet client needs. In the context of the ever-changing landscape of emerging industries, Julia tackles novel legal questions and provides practical, effective counseling to clients, from the macro to the micro, on each transaction.
