Sara Portillo focuses her practice on financial markets and regulatory matters.

A diverse and expansive practice

Sara supports a diverse range of financial market participants on regulatory and compliance matters. She also helps financial industry clients in both corporate and transactional matters, including advising on fund formation.

Sara's career trajectory to date encompasses valuable regulatory experience in London which is complemented by her extensive in-house cross-industry exposure. Her international experience, having worked in key Asian markets including Singapore and China, enables her to navigate complex regulatory frameworks with a global perspective.
