Jordan Schwartz focuses on a broad range of transactional and corporate matters for proprietary trading firms, hedge funds, asset managers and other financial industry participants. Jordan advises clients with respect to mergers and acquisitions, general corporate matters, joint ventures, start-ups, fund and manager formation, seed and series funding, equity and debt financings, reorganizations, revenue shares, buyouts, spinouts, and various types of employment, consulting and trading arrangements.

Dedication to detail produces durable solutions

Jordan's passion for commercial law stems from his own entrepreneurial ventures and business experience, having previously worked for startups and a Fortune 500 company. In understanding both the client's business model and legal needs, Jordan balances risks and rewards to offer enterprise-wide legal counsel and comprehensive solutions.
