

Usha Avasarala

Associate

Private Credit

Chicago Office | +1.312.902.5496

usha.avasarala@katten.com

Usha Avasarala represents both lenders and borrowers in financial transactions including asset-based lending, first lien/second lien, acquisition financing and unsecured lending. Leveraging her breadth of experience, Usha is keen on providing detail-oriented, tailor-made representations to her clients.

Passion for deals in the world of Private Credit provides the enthusiasm and commitment to cutting-edge, client-focused services

Usha started her career as a lawyer in India, where she served in different capacities in the financial and aviation sectors. She has worked as an in-house counsel for an international airport managing their contractual as well as compliance matters, and after relocating to the United States, she worked as a debt finance associate with another Big Law firm in Chicago.

Practices

- Private Credit

Industries

- Finance and Financial Markets

Education

- JD, DePaul University College of Law, magna cum laude, Order of the Coif
- LLM, Washington University in St. Louis
- LLM, Institute of Air and Space Law, McGill University
- BA, BL, National Academy of Legal Studies and Research University of Law (Hyderabad, India), with honors

Bar Admissions

- Illinois