Patrick Fallon

Associate

Securities Litigation

Chicago Office | +1.312.902.5318

patrick.fallon@katten.com

Patrick Fallon works with corporations and corporate officers on litigation and enforcement matters. His practice has a focus on alleged violations of federal securities law.

Dedication to detail-oriented solutions

Prior to joining Katten, Patrick served as an articles editor for the Michigan Technology Law Review. In this role he had the opportunity to prepare articles regarding cutting-edge technology for publication.

Before law school, Patrick worked as a healthcare consultant in Chicago, where he learned the importance of detail-oriented work and maintaining collaborative relationships with clients.

Publications

- Financial Markets and Funds Quick Take | Issue 52 (July 2026)
- SEC Division of Examinations Releases Its 2026 Examination Priorities (November 25, 2025)

Practices

- Financial Markets Litigation and Enforcement
- Litigation
- Securities Litigation

Education

- JD, University of Michigan Law School
- BS, Indiana University

Bar Admissions

- Illinois