

Michael E. Margolis

Counsel

Real Estate

Chicago Office | +1.312.902.5447

michael.margolis@katten.com

Michael Margolis is a practical deal attorney with experience both in big law and in house with a large, international real estate investment firm. He understands what is important to clients and how to best protect their interests while ensuring that the deal gets done.

Practical and deal oriented while zealously representing clients' interests

Michael's experience in house allows him to fully understand what matters to clients. He is a trusted advisor to his clients that brings a detail-oriented as well as practical, business-minded approach to his practice that stems from his work on sophisticated and complicated transactions across a broad array of asset types.

Education

- JD, The George Washington University Law School
- BA, Brandeis University

Bar Admissions

- Illinois
- Maryland