Abe Salander is a commercial real estate attorney who represents clients across the full lifecycle of real estate transactions. He advises purchasers, sellers, investors, developers, landlords, tenants, lenders and borrowers in acquisitions, dispositions, leasing, financing, and joint ventures involving a broad range of asset types.

Bringing a multidisciplinary perspective to real estate transactions

Abe brings a diverse background to his transactional practice. Drawing on extensive prior experience as a litigator handling complex real estate and business disputes, as well as a background in investment banking and real estate investments, he identifies risk and structures deals to anticipate potential pitfalls — all with a practical, business-oriented perspective that helps clients achieve their objectives efficiently.
