

Neeki Memarzadeh

Associate

Appeals and Critical Motions

Washington, DC Office | +1.202.625.3619

neeki.memarzadeh@katten.com

Clients turn to Neeki Memarzadeh when they are involved in government investigations, matters on appeal, or need dispositive motions at the trial-court level. They also rely on her for help evaluating and addressing risks and opportunities surrounding diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) practices.

Strategic advocacy for complex government inquiries and appellate challenges

As a former appellate clerk, Neeki has experience defending clients in federal enforcement matters and congressional investigations. She has assisted clients across a range of industries, including healthcare, nonprofit organizations, education, social media and technology, and state government.

Practices

- Appeals and Critical Motions
- Employment Litigation and Counseling
- Government and Public Finance
- Healthcare
- White Collar and Internal Investigations

Industries

- Education
- Technology

Education

- JD and LLM, Duke University School of Law
- MS, Georgia Institute of Technology
- BS, Georgia Institute of Technology

Bar Admissions

- District of Columbia

Court Admissions

- US Court of Appeals, District of Columbia Circuit
- US Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit