Lavinia Puder

Associate

Commercial Litigation

London Office | +44 (0) 20 7770 5243

lavinia.puder@katten.co.uk

Lavinia Puder brings broad experience across complex commercial litigation and arbitration, with a particular interest in disputes involving novel or technically complex issues.

Practical, clear-headed guidance on complex commercial disputes and arbitration

Combining strong research and analytical skills with clear, careful drafting, Lavinia distills complex issues and helps clients develop practical strategies. Her experience on high-value disputes has given her exposure to matters involving multiple stakeholders, experts and jurisdictions.

Her international background and fluency in English and German, together with working knowledge of Spanish and French, allow her to work effectively with clients and advisers from different jurisdictions and perspectives.

Publications

- Fifth NSI Act Annual Report: More Notifications, Fewer Interventions (August 5, 2026)
- UK National Security and Investment Act: Government Confirms Targeted Reforms to Mandatory Notification Regime (April 13, 2026)
- Getty Images v. Stability AI: Intellectual Property Rights in the Age of Generative AI (November 14, 2025)
- Privacy, Data and Cybersecurity Quick Clicks | Issue 31 (July 2025)
- Wise Up: UK Court Invalidates Broad Software Terms in Landmark Decision Post-SkyKick (July 29, 2025)

Practices

- Commercial Litigation
- International Arbitration
- Litigation

Education

- LLB, Maastricht University
- LLM, King's College London
- LLM, LLB, BPP University Law School at London

Bar Admissions

- England and Wales