Morgan A. Grotewold brings a detail-oriented, collaborative approach to client matters and works as part of a team to help clients achieve their goals. Morgan gravitates towards her practice areas because they combine careful legal analysis with creative, solutions-oriented thinking, and she enjoys helping clients navigate important business decisions.

Approaching each matter with a keen eye for detail

While in law school, Morgan worked in the Illinois Appellate Court, where she drafted and assisted with drafting judicial opinions, strengthening her legal research, writing and analytical skills. She also served as a notes editor for the Illinois Journal of Law, Technology & Policy, which published her student note, and was a finalist in her law school's negotiation competition. Morgan graduated magna cum laude from the University of Illinois College of Law, where she was a Harno Scholar.
